

BTCUSD Weekly Price Prediction Contest
- Second Round

Terms and Conditions

Campaign Duration

The campaign is valid from August 11, 2025, 12:00:00 (GMT +8) to October 10, 2025, 11:59:59 (GMT +8))

Terms and Conditions

The "BTCUSD Weekly Price Prediction Contest" (hereinafter referred to as the "Campaign") is provided to clients of Ultima Markets Ltd (Mauritius License No. GB 23201593) (hereinafter referred to as the "Company" or "Ultima Markets").

Eligibility

1. This campaign is open to all new and existing clients of Ultima Markets. By participating, clients acknowledge that they have read and agreed to abide by the campaign's terms and conditions and Ultima Markets' general terms and conditions
2. Clients will receive one participation ticket for every USD 100,000 in accumulated notional trading volume.
3. The notional trading volume is calculated based on the client's trading activity during the campaign period.
4. Clients with PAMM and MAM-related accounts are not eligible for this campaign.

Campaign Mechanism

5. Each entry ticket is valid for one prediction only. Customers may obtain up to 100 entry tickets during the promotional period. In cases where customers submit multiple predictions, only the earliest 100 submitted predictions will be counted by the system.

Accumulated Notional Volume (USD)	Ticket
$ 100,000	1
$ 500,000	5
$ 1,000,000	10
$ 1,000,000	100

6. Participants must submit their prediction by Friday (GMT+8) 12:00:00 each week (predictions made after this time will be considered for the following period), forecasting the BTCUSD price at Friday (GMT+8) 22:00:00 of the current week ("Actual Price"). The price displayed on the Ultima Markets platform will be used as the reference, and calculations will be accurate to 2 decimal places.
7. Predictions submitted after Friday (GMT+8) 12:00:00 will automatically be entered into the next week's contest.

The prize structure is as follows :

Prizes

Prize	Prediction Accuracy	Prize Amount (USD)
First Prize	Exactly match BTCUSD price (accurate to 2 decimal places)	30000
Second Prize	Match BTCUSD price (accurate to 1 decimal place)	3000
Third Prize	Match BTCUSD price (accurate to the ones digit)	300

8. Third prize will be awarded to the first 20 users who submit correct answers, based on the order of submission time.
9. If multiple participants win the same prize, the prize amount will be evenly distributed among all winners.
10. If there is no winner for the jackpot in the current period, 50% of the jackpot and second prize amount will roll over to the next period, increasing the prize amounts for the jackpot and second prize.
11. The third prize amount will remain unchanged.
12. Each client can only win one prize per week. If their prediction qualifies for multiple reward tiers, they will receive the highest applicable prize.
13. Only trades with an open-close interval of at least 10 minutes will count toward the notional trading volume requirement.

Reward Distribution

14. The weekly winner list will be published on the Ultima Markets official website on the following Monday, and winners will be notified via the email address provided.
15. Prizes will be credited to winners' Ultima Markets accounts within fourteen business days after the announcement.

General Terms & Conditions

16. Ultima Markets shall not be liable for any losses, liabilities, or damages arising from participation in the event, including but not limited to technical issues such as server failures or unstable network connections.
17. By registering, participants are deemed to have accepted and understood all terms and conditions set by Ultima Markets. Failure to comply at any time may result in disqualification.
18. Ultima Markets reserves the right to amend the terms and conditions at any time, with changes communicated via the Ultima Markets official website.
